

What kind of extra help can my son or daughter receive at Cambridge?

Mrs. Oaks: resource room support for students with an IEP.

Mrs. Moy: academic tutoring for students who are struggling in a class

Subject-specific help is also offered:

Math Workshop: this small group support is offered for students who are struggling in a math class

Writing Clinic: this support is available for students who need a little extra boost with writing skills, editing or revising

Additional support:

Sometimes students just need a quiet place to “regroup” or “refocus”. This is also offered in our tutoring room (102) or in our counseling reception area. If this is not enough, a counselor, social worker, behavior coach or principal will be able to offer support and direction.

At Cambridge High School,
we are...

“Learning
today for a better tomorrow.”

Cambridge High School provides support for students with a current IEP or current 504 plan.

Each individual POD will have access to your credit supervisor. You will also have the availability of staying a full day or visiting with the tutor.

Our social worker offers a variety of support, individual therapy and counseling, in addition to intensive therapy. She is connected to many local resources and agencies.

Ms. Eves, our principal offers students the opportunity to improve their behavior by providing individual plans and addressing specific goals. Students are monitored, mentored and encouraged as they progress toward meeting their goals. Students and parents are part of the plan, which is adjusted to fit the needs of the student. Does your son or daughter need a little extra boost to make better choices? Call us to ask about a behavior support plan!
